

I heard that K-Love may disappear from my radio selections locally. Please know that it has served me and my family with our choice of broadcasting for many years. It is one of the few that we listen to and we need to keep this station available. It serves so many in our community with inspiration and messages of hope.

Sincerely, Marc Rupp